ANITA FROCK SHOPS TO LOCATE HERE THIS FALL

George Binder, owner of the Safeway building, corner of Sartori and El Prado, announces that a long-term lease has been signed by Anita Frock shops, for occupancy sometime this fall.

It is expected that Safeway will vacate the premises within 60-90 days.

Anita Frock Shops are owned and operated by Charles Colby, who has approximately 50 stores on the west coast. The new store will have a 30-foot entrance on the El Prado and Sartori sides with three other stores yet to be leased facing El Prado.

Binder, who is in constant contact with outstanding retail chains, wants to lease to such stores as the Anita Frock shop in order to make downtown Torrance an "outstanding shopping center."

Two Banquets Slated at EC College

Climaxing a year of scholastic and co-curricular activities, El Camino college will stage two awards banquets in its Campus Center May 24 and June 6.

"Growth of the college has necessitated two award presentations this year," Merl F. Sloan, director of student personnel, announced today, indicating that athletic awards will be made at the initial banquet this month.

In charge of the athletic banquet will be Bill Bragg, student commissioner of athletics. Highlighting this dinner will be the presentation of the "Athlete of the Year" award, given annually to the Warrior who has contributed most to the athletic program of the college.

Other athletic awards will be made to outstanding intramural sports participants and to lettermen in all spring sports. Awards for outstanding individual performance will be made in each sport.

Scholarships, departmental awards, and other distinctions in the fields of scholastic endeavor and student government will gain recognition at the 6:30 p.m. banquet on June 6. Jim Lawrence, commissioner of activities, will head the second event to honor El Camino students.

The public is invited to attend both dinners, tickets being available in the student store of the Campus Center.

Praising the work of campaigners, Dr. Ellenhorn pointed out, "While progress has been good, we still have a long way to go. The Centinela Valley-South Bay Division includes the communities of Torrance, Redondo Beach, Gardena, Hawthorne, El Segundo, Lawndale, Hermosa Beach, Lennox, Manhattan Beach, Playa del Rey, Lomita, and Palos Verdes.

Pirates Down Red Sox

Led by the hitting of Tom Peuser, Jeff Nicholson and Dick McGuire the Pirates opened their American League schedule by downing the Red Sox 11-4. Nicholson blasted a homer and double, while Peuser and McGuire blasted three hits each.

The pitching of Jim Walters and Larry Howard of the Sox was no problem for the winners. Roy McCune held the losers to two hits. These came with runners on base due to walks. Larry Fink and Johnny Keyes collected the timely bingles.
